He didn't say much but the agents were very interested in one specific member that Animal had in his truck. Someone by the name of Inky. They were trying to find out what Animal knew about Inky, how long he's known him, etc. Animal told them he only met him the one time when he got in the back of his truck. Nothing major and he was released but I wanted to give you a heads up that the feds are looking hard at Inky for some reason.

Open Source	12/18/2020 12:00 AM	Enrique Tarrio	Parler	Tarrio Parler Post: "The FBI is currently the [sic] investigating a supposed 'hate crime' perpetrated by the ProudBoys. They're even offering a reward. I'm here to tell you that there was no hate crime committed. The only hate there is in my heart is for communism and an authoritarian government. BLM is a Marxist movement. It isn't about the color of someone's skin. Against the wishes of my attorney I am here today to admit that I am the person responsible for the burning of this sign. And I am not ashamed of what I did because I didn't do it out of hate...I did it out of love. Love for a country that has given my family SO MUCH. The burning of this banner wasn't about race religion or political ideology it was about a racist movement that has terrorized the citizens of this country. I will not standby [sic] and watch them burn another city. So let me make this simple. I did it. Come get me if you feel like what I did was wrong. We'll let the public decide. Forever PROUD. - Enrique "

Email	12/20/2020 6:02 PM	Shane Lamond <shane.lamond@dc.gov>	Leslie Parsons <leslie.parsons@dc.gov>	FW: Subject in photo - Lamond provides the following email response regarding photo ID request #1: "I have viewed the attached photograph and it is difficult for me to conclusively identify with 100% certainty that the individual depicted in this photograph is Mr. Henry "Enrique" Tarrio since I cannot see his whole face. However, I physically observed Mr. Tarrio on December 12th and have reviewed multiple videos that captured him on December 12th in Washington, DC. Based on a comparison of those videos with the attached photograph, I believe this is Mr. Henry "Enrique" Tarrio kneeling down next to the banner based on the clothing he is wearing, the placement of the patches and the drink on his tactical vest, and the limited view of his face."
Email	12/20/2020 7:16 PM	Shane Lamond <shane.lamond@dc.gov>	Leslie Parsons <leslie.parsons@dc.gov> Nicole Copeland <nicoleg.copeland@dc.gov>	Re: Tarrio? - Lamond received and provides email response to photo ID request #2: "The first picture from the article is one of the pictures I reviewed. That is 100% him and accurately depicts how he looked when I physically observed him on December 12th. The second and third pictures appear to be the same guy who was kneeling down next to the banner in the original photograph I was asked to identify. Again, I believe that is Mr. Tarrio based on the clothing he is wearing, the placement of the patches and the drink on his tactical vest, and the limited view of his face. I forgot to provide the background on my familiarity with Mr. Tarrio in my previous email. I have known him for almost 1.5 years, since meeting him while working the Demand Free Speech First Amendment event in July 6, 2019. I have seen him in person and spoken with him approx. 5-6 times since first meeting him in July 2019."
