Hello Patriot!

September 21, 2021

I've recieved so many letters recently, that it's hard to know how to respond. Where do I even begin? --- how about at the end?

I'm sitting on a cold, steel, bunk right now; surrounded with the many letters I've recently recieved since the public learned how we're being treated, and the jail started giving us our mail. Many of the letters are post-marked from as much as 4 months ago. Many are damaged and torn, with no return addresses. All of these letters are my first, real light of hope, because many months ago I'd grown to despise the apathy of our Nation, and lost all hope.

They keep us in a remote part of the D.C. jail that wasn't even in use until they brought us here. This is the 6th jail I've been shuffled around to since the day that 30 "agents" and a tank assaulted me with guns and flash-bang grenades, when they arrested me, nearly 9 months ago.

I'm being charged with a lot of serious sounding charges that make no sense to me. But since I've never actually seen the charges against me; I'm not sure of the specifics. I know the liberal media has been calling me many things that end in "-ist", or "-phobic". Untrue accusations of thought crimes --- and they say I'll serve 26yrs to life!

Arrested on February 2nd, 2021 ; my very first sham of a bond hearing wasn't held until July of 2021. This was all so over-the-top and comedically dramatic, that I wasn't even worried--- initially. I've been demanding my Constitutional right to a Speedy Trial, (which is 70 days), since day one, and thought I'd clear this all up, and be on my way! But ever since our most important right---our right to vote---was negated; I'm discovering that I no longer have ANY rights!!

It's no longer amusing. Apparently, I'm being "pushy", and showing a "lack of trust" in my lawyers by wanting to see the charges and evidence against me with my own eyes. I'm on my 3rd defense attorney now, and trying for a new one. None have filed any motions on my behalf, and they keep telling me to stay in jail quietly while the Prosecutors take the time they need to build a case against me! I've been wearing the same contact lenses since January 7th. My eyes hurt. My money's gone, and my career as a travelling welder might be over.

The Democrats dream for our Country is reality now.

Meanwhile; the guards here strut around in their "Black Lives Matter" face masks, being abusive, and shoving their racist propaganda down our throats; papers & magazines that openly say that "white people" are devils, and dogs, and that we're lower than swine---claiming black men are gods. This racist, religious, cult propaganda is shovelled at us daily--- but it was a 3 month BATTLE for me to get a Bible! And they call US racist for wanting a fair Election ?!?

This Bizzaro World seemed comedic at first; just by the sheer ridiculousness and exaggerated proportions of the "narrative". But now, as I'm sitting here on this cold bunk---unable to stop my leg from shaking; it's my emotions that run the spectrum with exaggerated proportions. Pain and rage are powerful, and consuming emotions, but they don't even hold a candle to the feeling of hopelessness.

Fortunately, these letters all around me are my first, real signs of hope. When I hear the Conservatives-for-hire on the radio, condemning us---just like the liberals; it confuses me and destroys hope further. I was in lower Manhattan during the September 11th attacks in 2001, and nobody arrested me or condemned me for jumping into action then--- so why is, even people "on our side" condemning us now ?!?

On January 6th, 2021 ; the Police repeatedly tried to incite a riot. They had undercover "agitators", plus the Capitol Police using mace, tear gas, flash-bang grenades ---or they'd beat on a woman---in order to fire up the crowd. (Like Roseanne, who they beat to death and then disrespected her dead body.) These things DID fire up the crowd, but then everybody would calm right back down. The cops did this over---and over---and over---until they murdered Ashli Babbitt too. I think they did it to incite the crowd into enough of a frenzy that would justify them shooting us all.

And when the crowd didn't escalate to the level they hoped ; they just let people in the building for photos, so they could push their narrative anyhow. Their sick, twisted, narrative that now taunts the American people by giving Ashli Babbitt's murderer a REWARD for killing her !!!

Where's the outrage for our Patriot women being murdered in cold blood, for NO reason---other than to hide more magnanimous crimes?!? Yet they're cheering on our liberal oppressors by saying, "Well---if they did any violence, whether reactive or not---or broke any laws ; they need held accountable!"

Any REASONABLE PERSON knows the Election was stolen! So, the question that the Courts, and the People should be asking about us J6'ers is: WHEN does the DUTY to "throw off" a corrupt & tyrannical government begin? Our Declaration of Independence calls for it. Our Constitution backs it. So, at what point does that duty begin?

- When the Election numbers are making mathematically impossible shifts in the middle of the night?

No. There are laws and higher authorities in place to deal with that. (But I'm paying attention now.)

- Does it begin when the State I'm working in starts going against their own Constitution to facilitate voter fraud?

Not yet. There's still Constitutional "safeguards" built in; such as - The Electoral College, and the certification thereof.

- What about when the Vice President of the United States KNOWINGLY certifies a fraudulent Election, and our Country has OFFICIALLY been stolen from "We The People" ??

Constitutionally, and by the very principles that our Nation was founded upon; anything goes at that point!! Unfortunately, I wasn't prepared for our entire Country to be stolen. I just jumped into action when I saw the Capitol Police brutalizing women and elderly Patriots. Most people call that "acts of heroism".

I'm giving you a small window into some of my daily thoughts that run on a loop--- but it's difficult to know where to begin, or where to end. It's nearly impossible for me to convey my daily reality to you, when these days---weeks---- and months roll by so slowly here in solitary confinement, that they've robbed me of my own realities.

Time moves so slowly that I feel like I was born in here, and all my memories of real life are just things I've dreamed during the restless sleep I get when exhaustion overtakes my cramped up body and the achey uncomfortableness of my steel bunk.

I had a wife. We travelled the country, from state to state, as my career called for, and had a small wedding back in Kentucky, (where we call home), last year. She was diagnosed with an aggressive form of breast cancer a month after my arrest, and with the News repeatedly saying that I'd be sentenced to 26yrs - to - Life; it was simply too much for her.

She has a new man now that she shares her new hard-drug habit with. She blames me for everything wrong because I "left her", and my garbage lawyers wouldn't even attempt to get me out on bond so I could be there for her surgeries. God in Heaven knows how hard I tried....

Maybe she's right... reality is tangible, right? No matter how hard of a worker I've been... no matter how good of a Spiritual leader I was... and no matter how much I provided for us: This cold, hard bunk, and solitude, is my only reality. Even if justice does, somehow, prevail; I don't even have my own roof to sleep under anymore.

I do have faith in God though. Faith requires action, however, and since I'm unable to do anything myself while I'm in here; I'm asking you to plaster my Give, Send, Go! account EVERYWHERE!! On all forms of Social Media, to all the PodCasters, Radio and T.V. people... Julie Kelly, Steve Bannon, Natalie Harp, Greg Kelly, our Senators and Representatives... People need to know!

I need your help!
