ARKANSAS TROOPERS BAR CAPITOL PROTEST

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 11 (UPI) — The state police dragged and carried 25 white and Negro demonstrators from the State Capitol today to break up an attempt to integrate the cafeteria in the building.

The group split in two—six going to the office of Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the others to the exfeteria, which had been converted to a private club to bar

Negroes.

The police carried the demonstrators outside the Capitol and left them on the sidewalk on orders from Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

To eat in the cafeteria, state employes are supposed to pay $1 a year membership to join the private club, formed after passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The demonstrators said any white was allowed to eat there, whether a "member" or not.

Ehe New York Eimes

Published: March 12, 1965 Copyright © The New York Times